Photos of Children & Parent/Carers at Three Wings Trust Events & Activities

We often take pictures of children, carers and parents at events and activities held for our members to build up a library of photos which can be used for the following:-

- To demonstrate to other members what kind of activities we run
- Promote our charity to outside organisations
- Give members the opportunity to find out what they may have missed out on
- Promote individual activities at Three Wings Trust
- To demonstrate to potential funders support services in action
- A record of the services that have been provided
- Demonstrate to non members what activities would be available to them if they joined Three Wings Trust

Please could you indicate whether you give permission for us to use any future photographs taken of you and/or your children at events run by Three Wings Trust and/or any photos provided by you by ticking the relevant boxes below. Thank you.

Any photos featured, will identify children by their first name ONLY.

- Photos can be used in the Three Wings Trust Newsletter, leaflets, flyers, Services Guide and any other literature produced by us (group 1)
- Photos can be used in articles about Three Wings Trust, placed in publications issued by other local organisations or charities (group 2)
- Photos can be used on the Three Wings Trust website (group 3)
- Photos can be used for local press releases (group 4)
- You are happy for your family's photos to continue to be used after membership has expired (group 5)
